KANSAS. - The constitution prepared by the ing to the result of the vote slavery is to be forty nine to the K N's thirty nine established or prohibited in the new state. This is all well enough as far as it goes; but uncortunately it does not go far e nough. The people are properly allowed to vote on the question of lavery, but no provision is made for taking their rense on the adoption of the constitution itself. and however repugnant its provisions may be to the majority of the citizens, they have no oppor-tunity of opposing or rejecting it. If they vote at all, they must vote for the constitution, e ther wish or without slavery. This is clearly wrong; it is a great usurpation on the part of the Convention, and shows a disposition to dictate to their fellow citizens, and force the constitution upon them, which is not at all in keeping with our republican institutions, or consistent with the great principle of popular sovereignty involved in the Kansas Nebraska act.

The proposed Constitution provides for the organization of every branch of the government, executive, legislative and judicial; defines the qualifications of electors, how elections are to be held and the duration of office; explains the NewOrleans and Melbourne; but the Australian to the duration of office; explains the specific and pistols are made at Hartford. It was indisputably intended by the act organletter to the President accepting the government of Kansas, wherein he says: "I understand that you and all your Cabinet cordially concur in the opinion appressed by me, that the actual bona fide residents of the Territory of Kansas, by a fair and regular vote, unaffeeted by fraud or violence, must be permitted, in adopting their Sta e Constitution, to decide for themselves what shall be their social institutions. This is the great funpamental principle of the Act of Congress organizing that Territory, affirmed by the Supreme Court of the United States. and is in accordance with the views uniformly expressed by me throughout my public career. I contemplate a peaceful setilement of this question by an appeal to the intelligence and patriotism of the whole people of Kansas, who should all participate, freely and fully, in this decision and by a majority of whose votes the determination must be made, as the only proper and constitutional mode of adjustment

The democratic press generally condemn and denounce this arbitrary assumption of power on the part of the delegates, who seem to have resolved to make the most of the "brief authority"vested in them, and play such "fantastic tricks" as make Heaven weep, and the people mourn for the degeneracy of those who instead of being public servants have set themselves up for mas-

INDIA.—The latest advices from Delhi say that the extent of the British loss has not yet been ascertained, but it is believed to be less than welve hundred. The mutineers of the Govalier Contingent had been subdued by cutting off their supplies.

It was reported that Lucknow, which was re leved on the 23th September, was again besieged by Nena Sahib with fifty thousand rebels.

All the city people found in Delhi were bay-oneted by the British troops. Many Europeans were found in the city fightng in the ranks of the rebels.
